NEWSLETTER OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN ALMADEN, SAN JOSÉ, CALIFORNIA

From Stephen

Julianne's article in the December Shape about the change in worship times for AVUCC has resulted in several people commenting to me their concerns about the proposed changes. I have been very much impressed by the thoughtfulness and honesty in those comments. I want to emphasize that the change in times is not set in concrete and is not a "done deal". Julianne's article was the beginning of discussion and dialogue between our two congregations. I believe that if we are to make decisions which benefit both congregations and leave both in a win-win position we need to talk, we need to consider, we need to understand each other, we need to cooperate and we need to learn to work better together. What I believe is that HOW we make this decision is much more important than what decision we make. There are some serious concerns that need to be addressed before a change in worship times would be acceptable, but long after the dust has settled over what decision was made, we will still remember HOW the decision was made and that process will be a precedent for future decisions. Is each congregation going to make unilateral decisions without regard to the needs and concerns of the other? Or are we going to learn to live and work together in a spirit of harmony and trust? Both congregations are strong enough to survive either way, but I believe life will be much more pleasant if we can strengthen and support each other. The deep truth I want each member of ECA to realize is that much of our success depends on having the strongest AVUCC possible. Our youth programs, our Sunday School all depend on the ability of AVUCC to attract children and families just as their success depends on us.

I would also appreciate it if you have questions or concerns, that you come to me with them. I have heard some truly incredible rumors lately, none of which was made out of whole cloth. I will not promise to agree with you, but I will promise to hear and prayerfully consider what you have to say. I will also promise to be as honest with you as I possibly can as to what is happening. I believe we will get along much better this way.

January promises to continue the busy pace of Christmas. On January 4th at 1:30 p.m. Ken Wratten will be ordained to the priesthood as St. Stephen's in the Field's Episcopal Church at 7269 Santa Teresa Boulevard. All are invited to attend. Ken was a Field Education student at ECA. (By the way there is an article from CDSP featuring ECA's Lori Prince on the bulletin board. Lori was on Ken's Field Education Committee.) On January 5th we will celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany and perhaps have a visit from some kings. The following weekend on January 12th we will have our Annual Meeting following the 11:00 service. At that meeting we will review the year's accomplishments, look at some long range goals for ECA and the Joint Venture. We will also elect new Vestrypersons, Joint Venture Board representatives and Delegates to the Diocesan Convention. If you feel you are called to any of these ministries, please see me or a member of the Vestry as soon as possible.

On January 17th and 18th delegates from around the diocese will gather in Seaside for the Diocesan Convention. Representing ECA this year are Todd and Kimberly Axtell, Sandie Mueller, Natalie Mena, and Ginger Redman. Alternates are Ed Mueller and Peter and Amy Jacobs.

Finally, on January 26th we will gather by the big screen TV in the Youth Center to watch the Oakland Raiders edge the San Francisco 49ers in the Super Bowl.

ANNOUNCEMENTS...

"Where's my member directory ?!"

We have indeed heard your lamentations and are writing to let you know what we're doing to see that you have your member directories as soon as possible. Progress has been made in importing member and family information into our new membership software. That done, we are proceeding to work through all family relationship details so that, for example, your mailing label doesn't say THE BAUBLE FAMILY when there is only one Bauble in our congregation. People like to know their ministry knows who they are. Right?

Once we've done this, we can print out a draft directory for you to review at worship. When it's ready, we'll let you know and ask you to check and edit with your latest information.

If you moved, have a new work or home phone, or e-mail, this is your chance to let us know. How about your birthday or anniversary? We in ECA enjoy sharing your special days with you. By the way, did you know that some of you have been married for over 30 years and yet were born in the year 2000? (This was probably entered into a spreadsheet that couldn't understand the logic of human vanity.) If you absolutely won't divulge the year of your birth, our new software will forgive you and just record the month and day.

As for a pictorial directory, we are considering our photography options and hope to have that settled so we can publish your family and/or individual photos.

So, please be patient and, if you do have any changes you want to report to us, you certainly don't need to wait until we post our draft directory or call you. Just call Lorraine at 268-0243, e-mail her at office@eca-sj.org, leave a note in her mailbox, or stop in at the office.

2003 Camping Trip

What happens when you combine big hearts, a meandering river, smiles, mountains, laughter, a magical sea, music and marshmallows? Our 2003 camping trip at the All Saints, Carmel campground, located an innertube toss close to the Big Sur River.

Mark May 30 - June 1 on your calendars for a weekend of fellowship and fun at this beautiful site we'll have all to ourselves 20 miles south of Carmel, in Big Sur. This weekend is for all ages.

Wanted - Color Printer

If you upgraded your printer at home this Christmas and have an older working color printer we'd love to have it in the office. We're computerizing the church building use calendar and want to print each church's activities in color. All we'd ask is that the printer is working and ink cartridges are still available for that particular model. Please call the office - 268-0243 - if you have one. Don't just dump and run!

Thanks - Diane & Lorraine

STILL WANTED

SENIOR HIGH YOUTH LEADER

THIS COULD BE YOU!!

If you are gifted in leading a group of enthusiastic high school aged young people or think you would be, this is just the spot for you. We are looking for a leader or leaders to fill this urgent need as soon as possible.

Graciously, Ginger Redman has volunteered to lead the Senior High Youth group temporarily.

However, her schedule does not allow her to fill the position on a permanent basis.

The group meets two Sunday evenings a month. It is a small group but mighty! Most of the members went on the mission trip to Colorado last summer. They need someone with love, energy and a desire to get involved to lead them in further adventures— in spiritual growth, in fellowship and in just plain fun!

Please give a lot of prayer and thought to the possibility of taking this opportunity to serve. We will provide a great deal of help and support. If this job is just made for you or someone you know, please contact Stephen or Beverly Deveaux for further information— or, better yet, to sign up!

Humanity, Serving Humanity

That God is love;

That God somehow enters and moves in the world

Through the eyes and the acts

Of human beings—

This is why we sing of the dignity of all people.

— Stephen Rowe

When I began shaking the hands of volunteers, and looking into the eyes of those who are served at Santa Maria Urban Ministries, I knew I had a lot to learn. And yet, I felt right at home.

Lawrence Robles, Santa Maria's Director, recently shared, "The underlying mission at Santa Maria is really very simple, as a concept. We seek to make Jesus Christ a living presence by offering to all a safe place of welcome, service and positive transformation—when proper reflection and illumination is applied to the activities and events of this ministry, we come to recognize the presence of Christ."

Santa Maria, located south of downtown San Jose, is supported by the diocese of El Camino Real. It serves a diverse community of people in need, primarily Hispanic and Asian, by providing food, clothing, pre-school, English and computer classes, and a caring place to go if one is feeling lonely or hopeless. Although residence in certain zip codes is required for obtaining services at Santa Maria, no one is really turned away. Emergency food boxes and supplies are offered, and referrals to other charities are given to those not residing in one of the service zip codes.

I have had the privilege of teaching English as a Second Language (ESL) at Santa Maria since September. When I first started teaching, I was nervous. How could I communicate with my students with only a few partially retained (at best!) Spanish classes in my background? I eventually found some Spanish/English dictionaries to be helpful, but mostly I found the real desire of my students to learn English the most helpful thing of all. My shortcomings did not bother them a bit. I taught them English, and they taught me Spanish. We learned, and are learning, together.

There are many ways to help at Santa Maria. In addition to teaching ESL, I register clients at the front desk and sometimes sort food. Plans are well underway for a medical clinic and an immigration counseling center. If you feel a pull toward this kind of outreach, the best thing to do is visit Santa Maria between 9 a.m. and 12 p.m. The address is 778 South Almaden, San Jose. If you want to call first, the number is 292-3314. The ever patient Mr. Robles will give you a tour of the facilities and guide you to a volunteer opportunity that fits your particular talents. Financial donations are welcomed as well.

In our current political climate, it is encouraging to be part of Santa Maria Urban Ministries, where every human being is treated with dignity and respect, regardless of gender, age, nationality, employment status, sexual orientation or religious affiliation. It is humanity, serving humanity, at its best. Visit, and experience for yourself.

REPORT FROM JV BOARD OUTGOING PRESIDENT OKUMURA...

The year is coming to a close, and my tenure as your JV Board president will soon be over. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the Joint Venture Board members and our clergies, Julianne Stokstad, Stephen Mills. My gratitude to pastor Nolan Redman for all his 17 years of wonderful work prior to his retirement in July of 2002 and God bless Ann.

During the past year we did have some turbulent times but with great deal of candor, patience and thoughtful consideration your Board has rallied through these adversities and subsequently made good decisions for the benefit of both churches. That is the strength of Joint Venture to share, study and assimilate great talents and maximize their efforts.

Your Joint Venture Board has worked diligently to improve the status of our facility. It is aging, and consequently requires a great deal of work to keep your Church looking good and functional. Long Range Planning Committee uncovered various needs that required attention and prioritized them. Quality work was necessary but we also had to be fiscally responsible. The three major concerns were, 1) Fix the leaky roof. 2) Get the Termite problem under control 3) Paint the Church -inside and out

The leaky roof has been a chronic problem for many years despite numerous attempts to fix it. The major goal was to find a system that would assure of a warranty that will give us adequate protection. After a thorough investigation, Dinyari "Astec System" was selected on the basis of their experience of sealing 200,000,000 sq ft of roofing over the past 15 years. Our research revealed them to be meticulous in their work and very reliable. The roof was basically sealed on November the 5 just before the first heavy rain storm and it survived the onslaught without a leak. So the first test was satisfactory but we will test it again as another storm front moves in. Our roof is guaranteed for 10 years and can also be renewed for additional 10 years for much less cost. We did spend a great deal of time, effort and money on this venture but I am certain that it will be worth the effort in the long run. They will also do an annual inspection of the roof to identify any problems and fix it as necessary as part of our warranty.

Termites: Problem is currently under control: a) The subterranean termites which has been treated locally in the past, do recur. Currently Terminix has plotted 57 pods around the church, which are baited and progressively eliminate the family of termites. This is an on going project, and if during the course of the treatment any damage that occurs will be repaired. b) Swarming drywood termites have been a problem for many years in the sanctuary. After a very thorough study the only effective form of treatment was to fumigate the whole church which was accomplished October of 2001. So far it appears to be effective.

Painting of the Church: A great volunteer force from both Churches and led by our Facilities Chairman Bob Green.

Managed to paint the wood trimmings of the outside of the church in May and in another great Joint "Venture Work Day" in September the entire outside walls (stucco) was painted in record time. Truly a remarkable accomplishment by a dedicated group of volunteers. The inside of the church walls has also been painted at various time.

Other activities in which the JV Board has been involved include trimming of the large trees with the help of a tree surgeon, cleaning the furnaces and replacing filters, pipe for gas feeds was assessed, elevator problem was corrected, John Hawes has taken over the security system, adding of additional shelves in the fellowship hall closets courtesy of Jan and Al Day.

ADVENTURE IN THE ARTS NEWS

The first month of the New Year sees the return of the extremely popular Friday night SOUP & SOUND SERIES

For the Sound portion, three amazing organists (one to be joined by a singer) with a wide variety of music are prepared to thrill us, one on each consecutive Friday evening, January 17, 24, and 31. The Soup part? Ladies and Gentlemen, drag out those crock-pots and get creative! You have a hard act to follow. Last year the soups we savored before the concerts were absolutely marvelous. We've got the cookbook to prove it! If you want to try your hand, sign up in the Fellowship Hall when the list is posted or see our Soup Meister Supreme, Mr. Alex Dykes, famous last year for his highly caloric but exquisitely tasty offerings.

We have totally non-caloric but very enjoyable deserts planned for you before you go upstairs for the music: a variety of visual arts as a feast for the eyes. Phyllis Feemster, a very skilled painter of scenics and still lifes with a very gentle pastoral feeling, works in watercolor, oil, and some acrylic; George Stone, an accomplished photographer, produces luminous prints with a glowing, almost magical light by a

We're going to have a fabulous time. Don't miss it!

What a bargain! Dinner, Art Show, and Organ Concert, all for the suggested donation of $45 for the Series or $15 per evening ($24/$8 for students.) Pick up your series tickets at Alternative Christmas Market after church December 8.

As a future project, JV Board has looked into the status of carpets and have three bids for the narthex and sanctuary so we are quite aware of the cost. Currently the carpets are maintained by Bill Allfrey Jr. who cleans our carpets on a regular basis (professionally) so we owe him a great deal of gratitude and appreciation for his generosity. The facility requires constant work so if you have a special interest in painting, plumbing, electrical, carpentry, or any other skills, please contact the JV Board. We will more than welcome your service. At the beginning of the year each JV Board member was assigned a special task for which they were held responsible. Each member assumed their responsibilities and fulfilled their obligations. More interest was created and consequently much more work was accomplished.

Staff: Joint Venture Board took a great deal of effort on our staff.

Music: We are very fortunate to have Margaret Kvamme as our music director and we commend her leadership and great talents. We strongly support Almaden in Arts which really brings a wonderful musical program to our Church members but also demonstrates our activities to our community.

Education: Penny Sabin has done exceptionally good work, organizing and directing our educational programs. With the growing number of young children, education becomes a very important function. We are sorry to see her leave but we do wish her well, and hope that she finds happiness and success in her new environment.

Youth Directors: Recently we were very fortunate to have Cliff and Melanie Click act as our Junior Youth Directors. Ginger Redman had volunteered as a Senior Youth Director on a temporary basis until we find a permanent Director but as her Mother Ann is in serious condition, we are urgently looking for a Senior Youth Director. Any one interested should contact Julianne or Stephen at your earliest convenience.

Janitorial service is maintained by Professional Cleaning Service, and cleans the church on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, from 11.00 PM to 2.00 AM Any questions regarding the service, please contact VP of the Board.

Budget is the key responsible work of the Joint Venture Board. The Board must carefully scrutinize all expenditures, evaluate all necessary work that needs to be done, and keep the cost at a reasonable level, so that it will not burden the Churches, yet must have adequate finance to maintain our growth and promote activities in music, education, youth group.

Despite accomplishing a great deal of work this year, we made certain that our Capital Reserve and our Operating Reserve (Savings/Checking) are well maintained. Capital expenditures can be used in future years provided the money is returned in a given period of time so that we will always have adequate reserves to meet emergencies.

Over the past year we were able to fulfill our major goals, with a good working Board's participation, and with support from the enthusiastic voluntary workers which is the key to a successful Joint Venture programs. However, there is a great deal of work to be done on a short and on the long term basis. Many of the old Board members will be retiring this year including Bruce Bush, Bob Green, Diane Smith and Dick Okumura from AVUCC and Amy Griffith, Roger Hoyt, Ken Pittroff from ECA.

It has been a pleasure working with these fine people and I would like to thank them for their efforts and congratulate them on their accomplishments. No doubt they will be replaced by very able members from both Churches that will continue to do great work led by Allan Jones, our President-Elect for the coming year.

In closing I would like to thank you for the opportunity to serve on the JV Board, it was a great experience and I enjoyed working with the many good workers from both churches. May you all enjoy a great holiday season and let us welcome the New Year with great energy and joy and combine our many talents with enthusiasm working together to create a strong Joint Venture Effort that will continue to be successful.

Dick Okumura, JV Board President 2002
